Clinicians Peggy Whilden and Karen Whilden - Here is your opportunity to work with kata competitors and judges with international and national experience. Peggy and Karen will provide instruction on Goshin Jitsu. They bring insight as "A-Level" Kata Judges and are experienced kata competitors. They have won many national and international championships in Katame, Goshinjutsu, Juno, and the overall champion award. Karen is also the Shufu Yudanshakai Kata Development chairperson.

The Kodokan Goshin Jutsu was created in 1956 by a Kodokan working group to update the older kata with more modern forms of self-defense. Many people feel it also shows the influence of Kenji Tomiki, one of Professor Kano's students, who also studied Aikido under the founder of Aikido. It consists of 21 techniques against an unarmed, as well as armed, attacker. It is divided into two unarmed sets (toshu no bu) and three sets with weapons (buki no bu). The first seven techniques are against an attack close in. The next five are against attacks from strikes and kicks. Then there are three attacks with a knife, three with a stick and three with a gun. The techniques here cannot be used in free exercise practice or in competition, but only in kata. Never-the-less, as one practices this kata, the attack speed increases and one's reflexes and reactions sharpen to meet the attack. Eventually, this kata can be practiced with real weapons. The intent in this kata is different than with normal Judo practice, in that this is a self-defense kata, the intent on the part of both participants is to fully perform the attack and defense techniques. While the actions are controlled, so that the attacker is not hurt, the defender's actions can easily be modified to disable the attacker. It is important to realize that all of the techniques in this kata are consistent with the principles of "Judo", the way of gentleness or yielding.

Whether you are a judoka with an interest in the traditional kata, or one with little kata experience, this clinic is an excellent opportunity to learn about a different aspect of judo!
