The Takemori family has been a large part of Shufu Yudanshakai since it was founded in 1953. Sensei Jimmy and Sensei Edwin have been instrumental in the development of the Yudanshakai. The next generation of Takemori’s were all skilled judoka on the junior and senior level. Sensei Miki and Sensei Terri continue the tradition of developing Junior and Senior elite judokas. We thank all the Takemori family members for their outstanding devotion and service to judo. Fitness Assessments: Sensei Mark is a certified personal fitness trainer. He offers comprehensive fitness assessments as a free service to any adult judoka who is a student of Hui-O-Judo, and is serious about developing their physical fitness. A fitness assessment uses empirical methods to measure your anthropomorphic characteristics & body composition, flexibility, muscular strength, muscular endurance, and cardio aerobic capacities. After an initial assessment to set a baseline, periodic follow-up assessments can graphically identify changes in your fitness levels, which help to identify strengths & weaknesses of your diet & exercise programs. Each assessment takes about an hour to perform. He performs them in the privacy of his home in Bowie, & results are confidential by law so nobody sees the results but you. If you are serious about your physical fitness levels, see Sensei Mark to schedule an appointment for an assessment.

Judo Clinics - Throughout the year, Hui-O hosts clinics for Shufu Yudanshakai. I encourage all of you to try to attend them. The clinics cover a variety of topics. Topics vary from coaching, refereeing, standing techniques, mat techniques, advanced competition skills, different katas, tournament operations, and a variety of other topics. The clinics are held in Beltsville at the Academic Center. They are open to all judoka, regardless of skill level or rank. The clinics are an excellent way to get instruction from different instructors, see new techniques, work with judoka from other clubs, and gain valuable experience and knowledge. Shufu has some of the oldest and best referees, who are all former great competitors, now they are our sensei's and coaches. They live judo in every sense of the word.

For our Sunday only event judoka – There are a few tournaments coming up on Sundays. Fliers are available at the dojo or online. If you would like to participate in any of these events, please see one of the Sensei. We are happy to travel to the events with you.

Club membership - It is up to each one of you to PLEASE pay your bi-monthly class fees at the front desk. We have kept the rates for the judo club very low since we started the club. However, many judoka on the mat are NOT paying the center for the class. MNCPPC has remarked about this on numerous occasions. If you are not paying your membership with MNCPPC, you will be asked to leave the facility.

Hui-O travel team – We are looking at taking small teams of judoka to local tournament a few hours drive from here. Hui-O supports many of the local tournaments to help build fellowship in judo and to challenge us with different types of competition. There are tournaments in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia, New York, and the Carolinas. However, Sensei Mark and Sensei Kevin both work all day at the events as well as drive and help to manage the team. We would like to have a few parents or senior students volunteer to go along on the trip to help drive and to assist with team management. You can help keep stats on the tournament and take photos at the events for us. Robert Kirk was a huge help to us for our trip up to Connecticut. Having additional people along allows us to take the newer judoka to help them gain experience at small events or allow us to take more seasoned players to high level competitions. Two larger tournaments we attend that are coming up soon are the Liberty Bell in Pennsylvania in April and the AM CAN in Niagra Falls, NY in May.

San Jose's Marti Malloy Takes Silver At World Championships in Rio

By Ernest Pund

USA Judo's Marti Malloy is standing on top of the world – the World Championships in Rio de Janeiro, where she won a silver medal today, added to the bronze medal she won at the Olympic Games in London last summer to solidify her status as a superstar in this sport. Malloy hails from the USA Judo's National Training Site at the San Jose State University Judo Club in San Jose. She went 5-1 at the World Championships today in her 57 kg. division, putting her in a very exclusive club of just 28 U.S. athletes who have medaled at this super elite tournament, second only to the Olympic Games in terms of prestige and international ranking points. Only four Americans have taken gold and now eight have won silver at the Worlds. "So, so proud her!" said teammate Kayla Harrison of Wakefield, Mass., who took the nation's first Olympic Gold Medal in judo, making history at the Games in London last summer. "Taking a bronze in the Olympics and following it up with a silver at the Worlds solidifies Marti as a top contender for that number one spot! I'm looking forward to watching her career continue to blossom. She's the best." One of those four U.S. athletes taking gold at the Worlds was her coach today alongside the mat, who also hails from San Jose State University Judo, Mike Swain, a USA Judo board member. This victory puts another tremendous victory around her neck in a very short period of time. She has been on a vertical tear through the international circuit, taking not only the bronze at the Olympic Games in London and the silver at the World Championships today but also a gold medal at the Grand Prix Miami in June, another elite international tournament. "Marti's determination to win is so inspiring," said USA Judo President Lance Nading. "The improvements she continues to make every day are bringing her closer and closer to that Olympic Gold Medal she so deserves to win in 2016. It's going to be a great ride to watch for all of us." "How exciting for Marti and the entire USA Judo family to fight for gold in Rio. Today was Silver but in 2016 it will be gold for Marti," said USA Judo's CEO Jose H. Rodriguez. "My congratulations to Marti and Mike Swain and his coaching staff at San Jose. They had Marti prepared and ready for this." On her climb today, Malloy took down the No. 3 ranked fighter in the world in her division, Miryam Roper of Germany, and the No. 8 ranked judoka at under 57 kg., Ketleyn Quadros of Brazil on her home turf before a wildly cheering crowd of thousands. Malloy started the day with an arm bar for ippon against Anriquelis Barrios of Venezuela. She then picked up a yuko with a counter to win against Serbia's Jovana Rogic. Then she bested Brazil's Ketleyn Quadros, ranked 8th in the world, with a tai otoshi for yuko. In her fourth win, she threw Germany's Roper, ranked No. 3 in the world with Sumi gaeshi for ippon. In the semi-finals, she threw Vlora Bedeti of Slovenia with Sode Tsuru Komi Goshi for a wazari (half the value of the 'knock-out' full point that ends a match) and a foot sweep for a minor point called a yuko. In the Final for gold, Malloy was again fighting a Brazilian in front of the home crowd, Rafaela Silva, ranked No. 4 in the world. Silva countered Malloy when she came in for a throw and scored an ippon for the win and gold.

Paralympian Silver Medalist Myles Porter Headed for World Championships

By Ernest Pund

Continuing his quest for the very best competition on earth, be it visually impaired or fully sighted, U.S. Paralympic Silver Medalist Myles Porter of Colorado Springs, CO, is headed for his first Senior World Championships, alongside U.S. Olympians and other fully-sighted elites, scheduled next week in Rio de Janeiro. Competition runs Monday, Aug. 26, through Sept. 1 at the World Championships, second only to the Olympic Games in prestige and points that can be earned. Porter was climbing on a plane Thursday for the long trip to Brazil. He described competing at the World Championships as "an honor" and said that "being able to represent the United States in Rio is a blessing. Also, competing as a VI (visually impaired) athlete goes back to my great coaching staff and teammates who've made me better every day." Porter, 100 kg (USA Judo Training Site, Olympic Training Center/NYAC, Colorado Springs, CO), will be fighting in brackets heavy with the top athletes in the world. Among them is No. 1 ranked Henk Grol of the Netherlands, two-time Olympic Bronze Medalist. Grol has twice taken silver medals at the World Championships. Nearly 780 athletes from 124 nations are registered for the tournament. Porter was part of U.S. History in the making when he took a silver medal at the Paralympic Games in London last summer. Paralympic teammate Dartanyon Crockett, 90 kg., also from the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, took a bronze medal. U.S. Superstar Kayla Harrison (USA Judo Training Site, Pedro's Judo Center/NYAC, Wakefield, MA) took a gold medal at the Olympic Games and Marti Malloy, 57 kg. (USA Judo Training Site, San Jose State University Judo/NYAC, San Jose, CA), claimed bronze. Olympians Malloy, Travis Stevens, 81 kg. (USA Judo Training Site, Pedro's Judo Center, Wakefield, MA), and Nick Delpopolo, 73 kg. (Budokan Judo, Miami, FL) are among the 17-member U.S. team headed to Rio for the World Championships. "This is my first able-body Worlds," Porter said. "I hope I can take the experience of two Paralympic Games as well as four or five World Championships (visually impaired) into this one and do well. This is another step for me to make it hopefully to the Olympics in 2016."
